We acknowledge all the conditions laid out above, the general conditions overleaf concerning participation in GL events Exhibitions shows and the insurance information document, and we undertake to abide by all these conditions fully

Handwritten "Read and approved", signature and company stamp

Chapter 1 - General Provisions

1.1 These regulations have a general character and apply to all the events organized by the GL events Exhibitions Company, they are applicable to all the exhibitors or their principals and agents, whether they dispose of a temporary stand, or of a "permanent" stand. If the case arises, it completes the specific regulations proper to each event or a "technical guide" or "exhibitor's manual". By signing their application form, the exhibitors accept all the terms therein as well as those that specific or new circumstances require. They furthermore commit to observe all the legal and regulatory prescriptions in force, notably the labor laws. The organizer's responsibility can in no way be involved when he applies the terms of these general provisions.

1.2 The organizer decides alone on the location, the length, the opening and closing time of the event, the prices of stands, of entrance fees as well as the closing date of inscriptions. He alone determines the categories of people or companies admitted to exhibit and/or visit the event as well as the list of products or services presented.

1.3 The organizer reserves the right, without the possibility for participants to claim any indemnity, of deciding at any time, the displacement, the prolongation, the postponement or the early closing of the trade show. The organizer may anytime change the name of the show, according to the evolution of the market or on public request; the exhibitor cannot consider the changing of the name as a significant modification that could break the application form, especially for exhibitors engaged for many sessions.

1.4 Any derogation is only valid, excepting stipulation to the contrary, for the session(s) concerned and can in no way apply to other events.

Chapter 2 - Registrations, Admissions, Guarantees

2.1 The request to exhibit is filled out on an official application form made by the organizer.

2.2 The organizer reserves the right of rejecting, on a temporary or definite basis, any inscription request that does not meet the required conditions.

2.3 Can notably constitute temporary or definite rejection motives, incomplete forwarding of the information required, failure of payment or guarantees demanded by the organizer, even payments related to former exhibitions, the nonobservance of previous obligations and notably of these General Regulations, the non suitability of the requesting party, of his products or services, with the aim, the spirit or the image of the event, the legal receivership of the exhibitor, his recognized state of insolvency, the non obtaining of administrative or legal authorizations if the case arises needed for his presence during the event, the risk of affecting, by his presence, the protected interests of consumers and of young people, and law and order in general, the tranquility of other exhibitors, the safety and pleasure of visitors.

2.4 The exhibitor shall inform the organizer on any element or event, which has taken place or has been revealed since his inscription, and of a nature to justify a re-examination of his admission.

2.5 Furthermore, the organizer reserves the right of requesting, at any time, any additional information in relation with the foregoing and, if the case arises, of reviewing an admission decision pronounced on indications that were false, erroneous, or that have become inexact. The down payment paid then remains acquired for the organizer who furthermore reserves the right of taking legal action for the payment of the whole price.

2.6 The right resultant of the inscription is personal and non-transferable. The admission bears no admissibility right for a future event, and even in case of a participation agreement for several sessions.

2.7 Except derogation granted by the organizer by special request on their part, groups can only exhibit on collective stands if every company, member of the group, is individually admitted and has committed to pay the initial expenses and insurance fees.

2.8 If the exhibitor signs an annual contract (3 consecutive sessions) the stand size may not be reduced by more than 50% of the larger stand area. The stand may not be smaller than 16 sq.m.

Chapter 3 - Registration and participation fees

3.1 Notwithstanding special arrangements, the organizer reserves the right to refuse any registration contract which is not accompanied by the deposit payment.

3.2 The non-payment of the balance on the required due date, or the non-payment of a required installment, implies, without prior injunction, loss of the right to exhibit, the down payment remains irrevocably acquired by the organizer.

3.3 Furthermore, the organizer reserves the right of taking legal action for the payment of the balance of the price due, in spite of the non-participation, whatever the reason may be, of the registered exhibitor. In the case where an exhibitor, for any reason, does not occupy his stand on the event's opening day, or on the installation deadline date set by the organizer, he is considered as having abandoned. Without prejudice of any other measures taken, at the exhibitor's risks and peril, the organizer can dispose of the failing exhibitor's stand and the exhibitor shall not be able to claim for repayment, nor indemnity, even if the stand is attributed to another exhibitor.

3.4 The payment schedule that the participant commits to observe is the following: 20% of the total tax when signing the contract - 50% on the 10th of the third month preceding the show - and the balance due the 10th of the month before the show. By bank check, or transfer. If registration takes place after one or both of the above due dates they shall be payable at the reservation.

3.5 The prices are given excluding taxes in Euros. Taxes are calculated in addition, at their regulatory value in force.

3.6 All our services are payable at the main offices of GL events Exhibitions. Payments by commercial papers or any other type of payment operate neither substitution, nor derogation to the place of payment. The failure to pay a single paper or bill at its due date immediately makes the whole debt payable even if not yet due. On the date of the payment and without the need of an injunction, the interests on overdue payments run in full right at the conventional rate of 2% per overdue month up to the complete payment of the amounts due.

3.7 In the event of non payment of part or all the sums owed by the exhibitor towards GL events Exhibitions for any reason whatsoever, GL events Exhibitions reserves the right, following unsuccessful reminders and/or injunctions, to refrain from delivering the stand to the exhibitor or else to forbid him access to the stand by all appropriate and lawful means, regardless of the provisions here above and without prejudice to its right to claim an indemnification for the harm it has suffered.

Chapter 4 - Cancellation methods by the exhibitor

4.1 The stand space contract is definitive and irrevocable. If the exhibitor cancels or withdraws, at whatever time and for whatever reason, he shall be deemed responsible for the payment in full of the amount of his participation and every invoice relating it.

4.2 In the case of the cancellation of participation, for a multiple sessions agreement, shall be received in addition to the amounts foreseen above, the amount of the discounts granted in relation to the session per session agreements participation rate.

Chapter 5 - Attribution of spaces

5.1 The organizer establishes the plan of the event and proceeds to the distribution of spaces.

5.2 Even in case of stipulations to the contrary by the exhibitor, the inscription does not give right to a specified emplacement. Participation in previous events does not create, in favor of the exhibitor, a right to a specific emplacement.

5.3 In the constitution of lots and the attribution of emplacements, the organizer tries to take into account the desires expressed by the exhibitors, the nature and the interest of items or services that they propose to show, the layout of the stand they contemplate installing.

5.4 The organizer reserves the right of modifying, every time he finds it suitable, in the interest of the event, the area, the layout and the emplacement of show surfaces, and even in case of a participation agreement for several sessions.

Chapter 6 - Occupation and use of stands

6.1 It is specifically prohibited to sell, sublet, exchange, gratuitously or against payment, all or part of the emplacement attributed by the organizer. The goods exhibited shall directly depend of the exhibitor's activity. In the case of a representation, or a company trade agency, who are not directly present in the trade show, the organizer shall collect as many initial and insurance expenses, as the number of companies it accepts, and which because of this, will be listed in the trade show's catalogue as indirect exhibitors, if the achievement schedule allows it.

6.2 Except prior written authorization by the organizer, the exhibitor cannot present on his emplacement other materials, products or services than those listed in the application form and meeting the goods or services nomenclature established by the organizer. Except otherwise specially stipulated, the presentation and the offer of second hand equipment is rigorously prohibited.

6.3 The exhibitor cannot, under any form whatever, present products or services or do advertising for companies or entrepreneurs who are not exhibitors, except prior written authorization by the organizer.

6.4 If the exhibitor does not take part (staff and products absent) while the show is open to visitors, then the organizer has the right to claim financial compensation for unfairness towards the show's visitors. This is not related to payment for the stand.

6.5 The stand should be continuously occupied during opening hours for exhibitors (including setting up, deliveries and dismantling) as well as during the official opening hours for visitors. The non-observance of this stipulation may entail temporary or definite exclusion measures or by the organizer.

6.6 Exhibitors shall not empty their stand and shall not remove any of their items before the end of the event, even in case of prolongation. The eventual nonobservance of this stipulation shall be subject to a written report of the organizer on the basis of which he shall notably be founded to refuse the participation of the exhibitor in future events.

Chapter 7 - Accessing the event

7.1 No person will be allowed onto the premises without showing a ticket or pass issued or accepted by the organizer.

7.2 The organizer reserves the right to deny entry to any person - or request any person to leave - whose presence or behavior is considered detrimental to the safety or image of the event or who disturbs the peace.

7.3 Badges giving access to the event are issued to exhibitors according to the conditions set down by the organizer. Invitations reserved for persons or companies that exhibitors wish to invite are issued to exhibitors according to the conditions set down by the organizer.

7.4 No pets, including those of visitors, are allowed at the event. In any case, the owner or person accompanying the animal will be held solely responsible for any damage or loss caused or suffered by the animal in question.

Chapter 8 - Contact and communication with the public

8.1 The exhibitor expressly abandons any legal action, either against the organizer or against the producers or distributors, because of the distribution, for the needs of the event, in France and abroad, on television, videos or any other support (books, folders), of his image, of that of his stand, of his trade name, of his trademark, of his personnel, of his products or services and he guarantees the organizer from any recourse of his employees, sub-contractors and co-contractors, committing in advance to impose this obligation to them.

8.2 The exhibitors commit to only present products, services or equipment, compliant with French or European regulations, unless, if the case arises, see that are clearly indicated, by means of a sign, their non homologation. They assume the entire responsibility in relation to third parties. The responsibility of the organizer can in no way be engaged because of this.

Chapter 9 - Intellectual property and miscellaneous rights

9.1 The exhibitor shall see to the intellectual protection of equipment, products and services he exposes (patents, trademarks, models...) in compliance with legal and regulatory stipulations in force. These measures should be taken before the presentation of equipment, products or services, the organizer accepts no responsibility in this field, notably in case of litigation with another exhibitor or a visitor.

9.2 Failing an agreement between the Authors, Composers and Music Editors Society (S.A.C.E.M), the exhibitors shall negotiate directly with the S.A.C.E.M if they make use of music inside the event, even for simple demonstrations of sound equipment, the organizer accepts no responsibility of this order.

Chapter 10 - Insurance

10.1 The exhibitor obligatorily takes out "civil responsibility" insurance as well as a "comprehensive exhibit risks" insurance that the organizer has negotiated with the ALBINGIA insurers through the AON brokerage firm.

10.2 The clauses, guarantees, franchises and exclusions (including theft) are in the two documents enclosed related to the two insurances. These two documents shall be sent back signed to the organizer at the earliest time to allow the entering in force of the guarantees.

10.3 The insurance conditions can be modified or amended according to the demands of the insurers and the evolution of the insurance market. The possible modifications have to be accepted by the customer. Modifications cannot, in any circumstances, be an argument for contesting the multi sessions contract and / or the participation in the trade fairs.

Chapter 11 - Liability

11.1 GL events Exhibitions cannot have its responsibility engaged for any damages to equipment or to people caused personally by the exhibitors, by their personnel, by the people under their responsibility or by any object or animal belonging to them or of which they have the care of or by any element of their stand, decoration, attachment or other the setting up and dismantling of which, the compliance with regulations and usage rules are carried out under the entire responsibility of the exhibitor.

11.2 The exhibitor commits to let his stand be visited by the GL events Exhibitions company, by any representative of the latter or by any person duly mandated and notably by the security service or commission, during the trade show's opening or closing hours so as to notably check that the exhibitor fulfills all his obligations and that the conditions of security are observed and put in compliance and fill any request by GL events Exhibitions related to the safety of property or of persons during the trade show. Failing, the exhibitor that does not meet the demands of GL events Exhibitions shall immediately leave the premises, without being able to demand to be paid back and shall in all cases be held responsible of any damages that could arise for GL events Exhibitions, other intervening parties or any other person and that would be the consequence of his violation of a rule.

11.3 The exhibitors renounce in seeking GL events Exhibitions and the owner of the exhibition sites' responsibility and also renounce to the exercise of any recourse for any damages sustained.

Chapter 12 - Miscellaneous provisions

12.1 The organizer can cancel or defer the event if he notes a notoriously insufficient number of inscriptions. The exhibitor is then refunded for the amount of his down payment or of his participation. Up to the first day of the event, the exhibitor assumes the all the risks related to the eventual non-achievement of the event and notably the exclusive charge of expenses he shall have engaged in anticipation of the event.

12.2 If the event were completely or partially cancelled, for one or several days, even for a few hours, on one or several sites, by an act incumbent to an exhibitor, GL events Exhibitions cannot be sought on the subject and the payment foreseen in the application form would be entirely due.

12.3 The organizer can also cancel or defer the event in case of an act of God. If he were prevented of totally or partially observing the obligations incumbent to him in these general regulations by an act of God, a fortuitous matter, or the act of any person outside the organization and to the development of the trade show, he shall notify the other party and the agreement would be suspended. GL events Exhibitions would then be dispensed, without having to pay any indemnity and without having its responsibility sought, of obligations resulting from these regulations and for as long as the cause or the effects of the act of God shall not have ceased.

The obligations thus suspended shall again be fulfilled as soon as the effects or the causes of non-fulfillment shall have ended. However, if the suspension exceeds 2 days, or goes beyond the end foreseen for the event, the participation agreement could be terminated by GL events Exhibitions without indemnity. It is up to GL events Exhibitions to notify the exhibitors concerned, eventually directly on the stands, on which it intends to apply this clause. Constituting an act of God justifying, at any time, the cancellation or deferment of the event, any new economic, political or social situations, at a local, national, or international level, not reasonably foreseeable, beyond the organizer's control, that would make the fulfillment of the event impossible or that would carry risks of troubles or disorders capable of grievously affecting the organization and the efficient development of the event or the security of property and of people. This shall notably be: in case of war, of revolution, explosions, strikes or other social perturbations, technical unemployment and in these cases, even if the cause is internal to the company, shortage or reduction of material or power supplies, interruption or perturbation of transports or other usual means of communication, riots, insurrection, attacks, fire, acts of terrorism, sabotage, demonstrations of any nature, torrential rain, inundations, epidemics, storms, very severe winds, nuclear explosions, falls of aircraft and spacecraft, hindrance of administrative order, lack of authorization, etc ... without being a limitative list. In any case GL events Exhibitions can in no way see its responsibility engaged and shall not be liable to any compensation, or indemnity whatsoever.

12.4 Any violation of the stipulations of these regulations, of the eventual special regulations completing it, or of specifications of the "technical guide" or the "exhibitor's manual" prescribed by the organizer, can, without prejudice to any other pursuits, entail, if necessary with the help of police forces, the closing of the offending exhibitor's stand.

12.5 This is particularly the case for lack of insurance, the non compliance of the layout, the non observance of safety regulations, the non occupation of the stand, the presentation of products not compliant with those listed in the application form, etc ...

12.6 In such a situation, the amount paid for the participation of the exhibitor is kept by the organizer, without prejudice to the payment of the balance of the price, of any amounts remaining due or of any other damages and interests.

12.7 The exhibitor commits not to refer a matter to a court before having previously implemented a procedure of amiable conciliation.

12.8 The Paris courts shall entertain jurisdiction.

12.9 By special agreement between the parties, these regulations are ruled under French law. Any eventual difficulties of interpretation of these regulations other language version.
